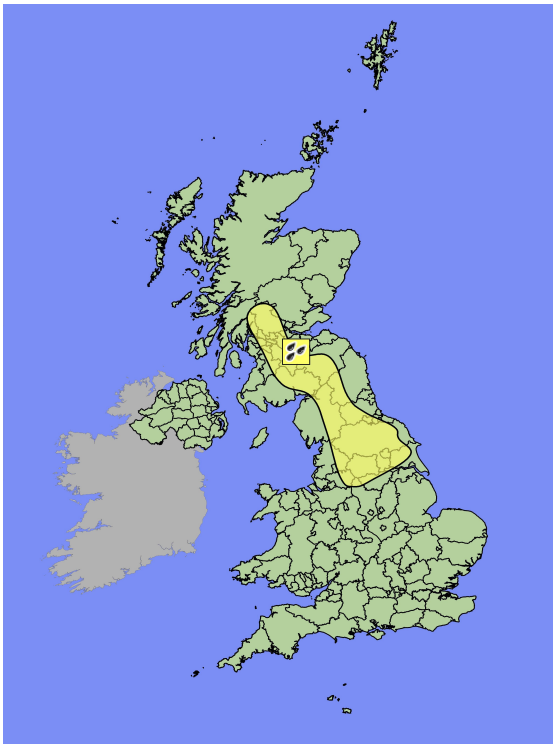
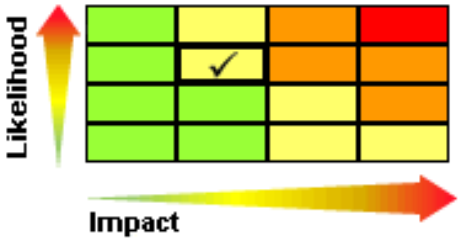
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Another day with some locally heavy downpours which could give 10 to 15 mm in an hour in places and 20 to 30 mm in a 3 hour period. Again, this will not be everywhere, with some places escaping most of the rain. The worst of the downpours should ease this evening.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 12:00 on Sun, 10th Jun 2012 until 22:00 on Sun, 10th Jun 2012

Further heavy showers, perhaps with thunder, are expected this afternoon and evening across much of northern England along with southern and central Scotland.

The public should be aware of possible localised surface water flooding.
